Restriction/Election of Species

1. This application contains claims directed to the following five patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

1. Figs. 1-6
2. Figs. 7 and 11
3. Figs. 8-10
4. Figs. 12-13
5. Fig. 14.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

2. In addition, should applicant elect claims 3 or 4 as readable on the elected species, applicant is required to restrict the claims to one of the independent and distinct inventions defined by one of the elements of the Markush group in each claim. The inventions defined in claims 3 and 4 by each element of the Markush group are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions such as a timekeeping device, communications device, electronic organizer, digital camera, audio player etc. are distinct devices not usable together as disclosed and have different modes of operation. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for each of the inventions defined by the Markush elements is not required for the other inventions, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 2841

A telephone call was made to R. Mazzaresse on 1/22/2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
